2 Men Arrested In Morals Cases

Two Worcester men were arrested at about 10:30 last night and charged with morals offenses involving boys from 11 to 14 years of age.

Sgt. Norman H. Dubrule of the Juvenile Division said both men were volunteers with the Boy Scouts of America, Mohegan Council Inc. All the minors involved are Boy Scouts, he said.

Taken into custody by Worcester Police Juvenile authorities were George W. MacGregor Jr., 38, and Matthew Roberts Jr., 23, both of 914 Main St. Both were listed by police as laborers.

MacGregor was charged with 15 morals offenses, and Roberts was charged with 26 morals offenses.

Dubrule said Roberts was an assistant scoutmaster. MacGregor was identified by police as district director of an upcoming Scout show to be known as the "Wonderful World of Scouting."

Both men were scheduled to be arraigned in Central District Court this morning. Each was held overnight at police headquarters in lieu of $1,000 bail with surety.

Dubrule said the arrests were the culmination of several weeks of investigation by Policewoman Linda C. Jackson.

Dubrule said the case was initiated as the result of an investigation into the activities of a runaway boy.

Roberts was arrested at his home by Policewoman Jackson and Patrolmen Howard E. Harvey and James M. Shugrue, Dubrule said. MacGregor was taken into custody by the three at Mohegan Council headquarters, 75A Grove St., at the end of a monthly planning meeting for the Scout show, Dubrule said.

Two Scout Leaders Face Morals Charges

Two men police said were affiliated with boy scouting at South Calvary Baptist Church, 949 Main St., were arraigned in Central District Court today on charges of 61 morals offenses involving scouts from 11 to 14 years since September.

George W. MacGregor Jr., 36, of 914 Main St., listed by police as the troop committee chairman, was charged with five counts of rape of a child, 19 counts of committing unnatural acts on a person under 16 and 11 counts of being lewd and lascivious in speech and behavior.

Matthew Roberts Jr., 23, of 914 Main St., listed by police as an assistant scoutmaster at the troop, was charged with four counts of rape of a child, 14 counts of committing unnatural acts on a person under 16 and 8 counts of being lewd and lascivious in speech and behavior.

Granted Continuances

Both men were granted continuances.

Police said MacGregor was also a district director of an upcoming scout show to be known as "The Wonderful World of Scouting."

Both men listed their occupations as laborers, according to police records.

Officials at the Mohegan Council, Boy Scouts of America, office were unavailable for comment on the arrests today.

Police said both men had been affiliated with the church troop for about two years.

MacGregor was taken into custody last night by Police Juvenile Division detectives at the scout council office, 75A Grove St. Roberts was taken into custody at his home.

Police said the arrests followed an investigation of several weeks by Policewoman Linda Jackson and Juvenile Division detectives. They said the initial investigation started when they checked the activities of a runaway boy.

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — Two volunteer Boy Scout leaders have been arrested on 61 counts of morals offenses involving scouts aged 11 to 14, police said.

George MacGregory Jr., 36, and Matthew Roberts Jr., 23, who live at the same Worcester address, were held in lieu of $1,000 bail. They were to be arraigned today in Worcester Central District Court, police said.

Both men worked with youngsters in the Mohegan Council of Boy Scouts of Central Massachusetts. Both listed their occupations as laborers.

MacGregor was charged with five counts of rape; 19 counts of committing unnatural acts with minors; and 11 counts of lewd and lascivious acts.

police said. They said Roberts was charged with four counts of rape, 14 counts of committing unnatural acts with minors and eight counts of lewd and lascivious acts.

Police said the men were arrested late last night after a complaint police received two weeks ago from an unidentified runaway boy. Roberts was arrested in his home and MacGregor was arrested at the Mohegan Council headquarters.

Police Sgt. Norman Dubrule said Roberts was an assistant scout master.
